Choral Call to Worship I Really Want to Worship You, My Lord Noel Richards

*Call to Worship

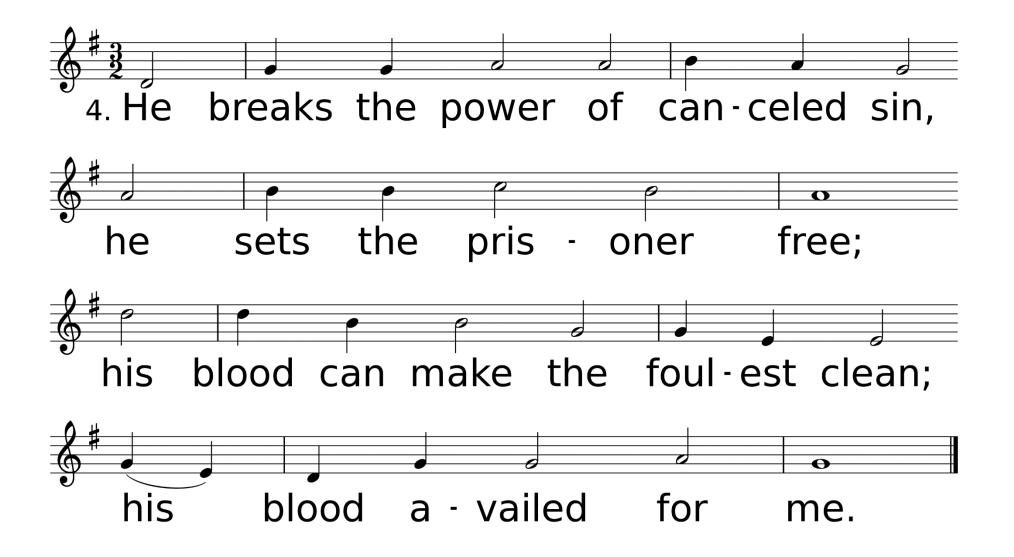

Leader: The Lord is merciful and gracious, slow to anger and abounding in steadfast love.

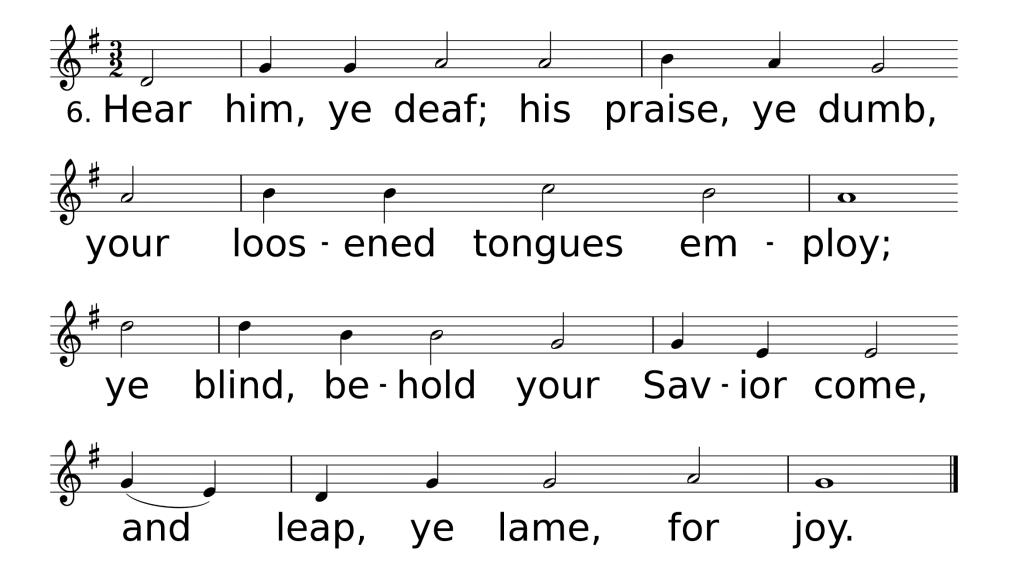

Congregation: He does not deal with us according to our sins, nor punish us according to our iniquities.

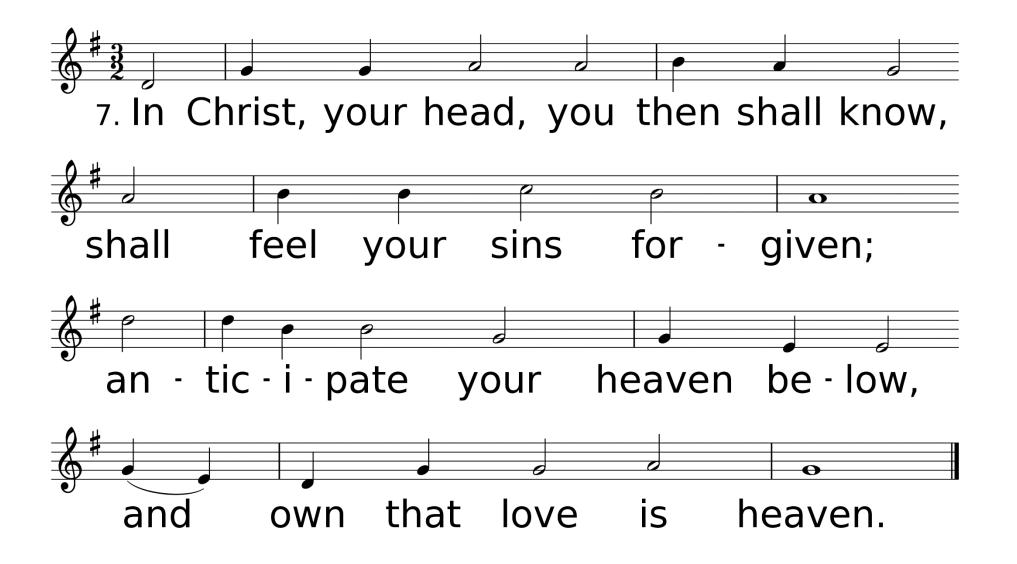

What shall I render to the Lord for all his bounty to me? I will lift up the cup of salvation and call on the name of the Lord. Amen.

*Hymn of Praise O For a Thousand Tongues to Sing UMH #57, v. 1, 4, 6 & 7 Used by Permission. License #1203752 & #20202614

*Affirmation of Faith

Leader: Brothers and Sisters in Christ, what do you Believe:

Congregation: We are not alone, we live in God's world. We believe in God: who has created and is creating, who has come in Jesus, the World made flesh, to reconcile and make new, who works in us and others by the Spirit. We trust in God.

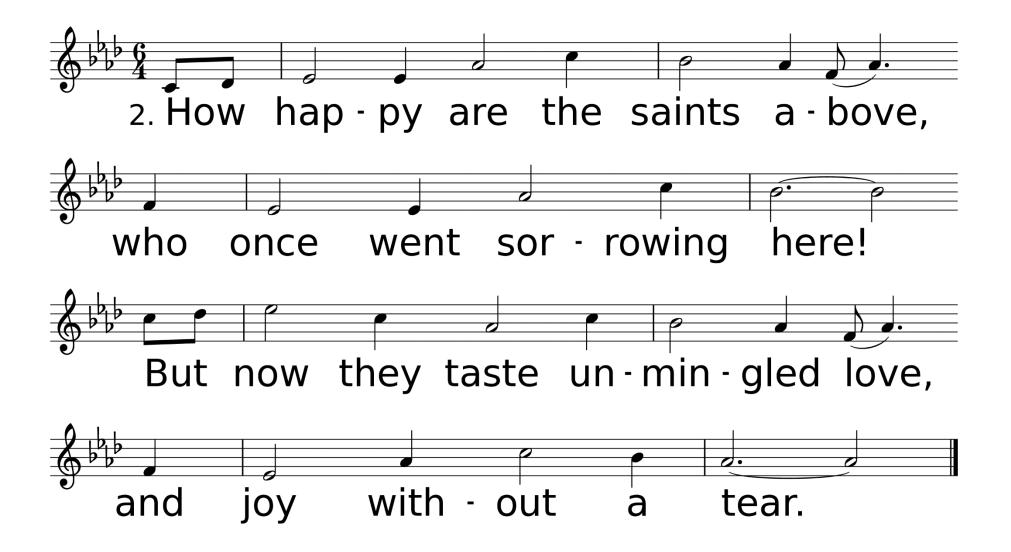

We are called to be the church: to celebrate God's presence, to love and serve others, to seek justice and resist evil, to proclaim Jesus, crucified and risen, our judge and our hope. In life, in death, in life beyond death, God is with us. We are not alone, Thanks be to God. Amen.

It was just before the Passover Festival. Jesus knew that the hour had come for him to leave this world and go to the Father. Having loved his own who were in the world, he loved them to the end. The evening meal was in progress, and the devil had already prompted Judas, the son of Simon Iscariot, to betray Jesus. Jesus knew that the Father had put all things under his power, and that he had come from God and was returning to God; so he got up from the meal, took off his outer clothing, and wrapped a towel around his waist. After that, he poured water into a basin and began to wash his disciples' feet, drying them with the towel that was wrapped around him. He came to Simon Peter, who said to him,

"Lord, are you going to wash my feet?" Jesus replied, "You do not realize now what I am doing, but later you will understand." "No," said Peter, "you shall never wash my feet." Jesus answered, "Unless I wash you, you have no part with me."

"Then, Lord," Simon Peter replied, "not just my feet but my hands and my head as well!" Jesus answered, "Those who have had a bath need only to wash their feet; their whole body is clean. And you are clean, though not every one of you."

For he knew who was going to betray him, and that was why he said not every one was clean. When he had finished washing their feet, he put on his clothes and returned to his place. "Do you understand what I have done for you?" he asked them.

"You call me 'Teacher' and 'Lord,' and rightly so, for that is what I am. Now that I, your Lord and Teacher, have washed your feet, you also should wash one another's feet. I have set you an example that you should do as I have done for you.

Very truly I tell you, no servant is greater than his master, nor is a messenger greater than the one who sent him. Now that you know these things, you will be blessed if you do them.
