A rustic barn interior with various farming tools leaning against a wooden wall. The wall is made of light-colored, weathered wooden planks. On the left, a long-handled pitchfork leans against a rusty metal barrel. Next to it is a bundle of dry sticks or brush. In the center, a large metal bucket sits on the floor. To the right, a straw hat with a dark ribbon is hanging on the wall. Below it, a shovel and a pitchfork are leaning against the wall. On the far right, two more shovels are leaning against the wall. The floor is made of dirt.

The illustration shows five children of various ethnicities and hair colors (black, red, blonde, brown, orange) standing in a row. They are wearing green and red shirts. The children have surprised or singing expressions on their faces. Musical notes are floating around them, and a red starburst is above the second child from the left.

The background of the image features three avocados resting on a piece of light-colored, textured burlap fabric. The fabric is laid over a dark blue, weathered wooden surface. One avocado is cut in half, revealing its green flesh and a large, dark brown pit. The other two avocados are whole, with their characteristic dark green, bumpy skin. The text is overlaid on the right side of the image, partially covering the burlap and the wooden background.
