A person is riding a bicycle on a paved path that runs alongside a field of tall, golden-brown grass. The scene is captured during the "golden hour" of sunset, with a warm, orange glow from the sun low on the horizon. The sun is positioned directly behind the cyclist, creating a strong backlighting effect and a lens flare that streaks across the bottom of the frame. The cyclist's legs and feet in white sneakers are visible as they pedal. The bicycle's rear wheel and part of the frame are in the foreground on the right. The background shows a distant, hazy landscape under the soft light of the setting sun.
