Pastor's Ponderings!

When I was young girl growing up in Girl Scouts, one of the songs we used to sing A LOT was "When E'er You Make a Promise." It was a song that was very short, very beautiful and could be sung in a round. The words were: When E'er you make a promise, Consider well it's importance, And when made, Engrave it upon your heart! It was a great lesson to learn in a song that taught us that if we gave our word about something, it was a promise, our "word" was important, and we needed to fulfill and do what we said we would do. Also, growing up in the Texas culture (I know this is true elsewhere too), that if you gave someone your "word," and especially if you shook hands on it, then that was as good as a written contract and, again, you had to fulfill what you said you would do. I can also remember, as a girl, that if someone said they were going to do something and they didn't, you heard the words, "But you told me you would do that!" You knew someone had broken their word. Sometimes, the break of the promise, their word, would feel devastating. Humans, unfortunately, will sometimes break their word. Sometimes we make promises we never should have made to begin with in our conversations. Here is the good news though. God fulfills his promises. "I will never leave you nor forsake you," Deuteronomy 31:8 and Hebrews 13:5. The greatest promise that God gave the people is that he would send a Savior to the world! "Therefore, the Lord himself will give you a sign: The virgin will conceive and give birth to a son and will call him Immanuel (which means 'God with us')" (Isaiah 7:14 and Matthew 1:23). The prophet Isaiah lived 700 years before Jesus was even born! Yet, the people knew that God's Word is true and so they began to pray for that day to come. They had no idea when he was coming, only that the prophecy had been made and God's Word is good. Generations upon generations were born, lived and died and yet they continued to pray for the Son of God to come because they knew God's Word was true. And He did come – almost 2000 years ago. And we have the great joy and honor of God's greatest gift to celebrate each and every year. This is that season to celebrate Jesus coming into this world – Immanuel, God with us. No greater gift can be given then God's love that came down to be with us. I pray that during this holiday season, you are able to keep Jesus at the center of your thoughts and celebration. May we daily say thank you to God for loving us so much to give himself to us through Jesus. May we say thank you AND pray for his coming again! Be sure to check out all the great events to be a part of during this season of Advent as we prepare for Jesus' birth! See you Sunday (if not before!).

Love, prayers and peace, Laraine

Bible Study

Our Advent Bible Study will begin Monday, November 28th at 11 AM or 6 PM in the Conference room. We will meet November 28th, December 5th, 12th, and 19th. We will be following the stories of Jesus being prophesied, the angels speaking to Zechariah, Mary, and Joseph, as well as their travels to Bethlehem, the birth, and the many visitors that came to celebrate. Each week you will receive Scriptures to read, and you will see the layout and the story being told through each of the Gospels. Come and join us for this in-depth study and help keep Jesus at the center of your Christmas season! Our first evening will include the following readings: Isaiah 7:13-14; Isaiah 9:6-7, Isaiah 11:1-6, 2 Samuel 7:12-13, and Micah 5:2.

Blue Christmas

Christmas is such a wonderful season that is filled with so many great memories for most people. A time with family, a time of joy, a time of gathering, and a season of love. However, it can also be such a difficult season because we no longer have different loved ones with us to help celebrate that season and it sometimes leaves us feeling sad, empty, and lonely. Each year, we offer a special worship service where we can honor and remember those loved ones who are no longer here. I, for one, miss my parents a lot this time of the year. They always made Christmas such a fun and wonderful time. I also remember my grandmother, Dado, who died over 40 years ago. She would sneak into our rooms at night and bring us milk and cookies. We would giggle and talk until my dad would call out to her and tell us to go to sleep. And we would giggle some more! This Blue Christmas service is a beautiful time where we come and remember, maybe shed a tear or two, and honor them for how they have blessed our lives. It's good to remember and to continue to make them part of our lives this Christmas season. So, please come Sunday evening, December 18th at 4:30 in the Fellowship Hall. And, if possible, bring a picture of each of the people you would like to honor and remember. Bring a friend, too!

All Families and Friends:

We have copies of our Advent Devotions in the Sanctuary or the Church Office for you. Please take one per family. We hope this may help you celebrate advent season this year!

Children's Music

NOTES

During December, the children will sing with the adult choir for Lessons in Carols on December 8. They also plan to sing on Sunday, December 18. Come join us on Wednesdays 4:45-5:15 in the choir room. There will be no children's choir during Christmas break; we will resume again on Wednesday, January 4.

FUMC - DeRidder Music Ministry Notes

On Thursday, December 8, the chancel choir will be joined by our hand bell ensemble and our children's choir in the yearly Festival of Lessons and Carols service at 6:30 PM in the sanctuary. There are some new faces in this year's seasonal choir, along with some old. The "Festival of Lessons and Carols" service has its origins in 19th century England. Prior to 1875, carols were not sung in worship. They were considered secular and only sung in the manner we refer to as caroling – groups of singers going door to door, but attitudes changed and an increasing interest in hymn singing resulted in the desire to have access to suitable carols. Composers and publishers capitalized on this. Anglican bishops began adding these carols to services on Christmas Eve. Then in 1880, Reverend Edward White Benson, Bishop of Truro, thought of a way to discourage the excessive use of alcohol on Christmas Eve in Cornish pubs by luring parishioners into church by offering a Christmas worship service. The order of service was simple. Nine passages from Genesis, the prophetic books, and the Gospels were reading. After each reading, a carol, hymn, or anthem was sung. Four hundred people attended the service. Bishop Benson was appointed Archbishop of Canterbury in 1883, and the Lessons and Carols service rose in popularity across the Church of England and across denominational boundaries. We use the same order of worship as the one used in services at King's College, Cambridge since 1919.

On a dark silent night, a baby boy is born. The world doesn't know He's our Savior; but the angels do! God's innumerable choir fills the skies with singing. A star forms above His head, leading shepherds and kings to bow before Him. That moment begins our joy to the world. 2000 years later, we still worship this baby...born on a dark silent night.

Isaiah 9:6

For to us a child is born, to us a son is given; ... and his name shall be called Wonderful Counselor, Mighty God, Everlasting Father, Prince of Peace.
